ENGINEMEN WARNED ON WHISTLING

ANOTHER BULLETIN ISSUED ON ABATEMENT OF NUISANCE

OFFICIAL TELLS ENGINEERS
THEY WILL SUFFER IF AR-RESTED HERE FOR TOO MUCH BLOWING.

That the incessant blowing of whistles by engineers on the Florida East Coast railroad while taking their trains through the city of Daytona is unnecessary and that the railroad company really anticipates a resort to law on the part of the city authorities to abate the nuisance, is shown by a bulletin of warning recently issued to all engineers on this division by the superintendent.

The constant blowing of locomotive whistles, particularly on the trains passing through the city at night, has been a source of annoyance to the people of this city for a number of years and numerous complaints have been made to the railroad officials. In January last year a bulletin to engineers was issued by the superintendent calling attention to these complaints and requesting the engineers to exercise more care
in blowing the whistles.

For a time some attention was paid to this order from the superintendent, but the engineers seem to have dropped back into the habit of opening the whistle valves and leaving them open as much as possible while trains are within the Daytona city limits.

That the railroad officials are anticipating trouble because of this and that they propose to make the engineer who brings trouble suffer for it, is shown by the following new bulletin issued to engineers by Superintendent George A. Miller:

"Your attention is again called to a bulletin issued by me January 6, 1912, which, it seems, is not being complied with — operating trains through the city of Daytona — relative to the unnecessary use of the whistle while passing through the city limits. Particular complaint is made of trains Nos. 82 and 38.

"With the exception of the last men employed, it should not be necessary for me to again call attention to this.

"Should the people of Daytona feel there is no relief from a nuisance, other than an appeal to the law, you will be called on to help defend the case in court, and should the company, through acts of its servants, be found negligent, then severe punishment will be dealt out.
It is not necessary to be continually bringing your attention to this matter.

"The laws of the state require that our engineers shall sound whistles for crossings, for the protection of life, limb and property.
This, however, is not to be interpreted as a license to create a public nuisance."

BEACH TAKES STAND IN HIS OWN BEHALF

TELLS STORY OF ATTACK ON HIS WIFE AT THEIR HOME

DECLARES THAT BOTH HEARD SCREAM AND THAT WHEN HIS WIFE STEPPED ON VERANDA
SHE WAS ATTACKED.

AIKEN, S. C., Feb. 6 — Frederick Beach, the millionaire New York clubman accused of slashing his wife's throat, took the witness stand when the defense was resumed to-
day. He denied the charge.

The court room was crowded with society people from New York and other cities. His wife is expected to take the stand this afternoon.

Mr. Beach reiterated the familiar story that he and his wife have previously told, contradicting several witnesses for the prosecution. Beach said both he and his wife heard a scream and thought it was the result of negroes quarreling. When the scream was repeated his wife let two dogs out and stepped out onto the porch.

A moment later he heard his wife scream and rushed to the veranda.
He saw his wife standing in a dark corner of the veranda and a dark
out the front gate.

He hastened to his wife, who was about to fall, picked her up in his arms and carried her into the house.
Then he rushed up stairs and got his revolver and rushed out of the house in an attempt to get a sight of the assailant of his wife. He did not see any person and returned to the house to see how badly his wife had been hurt.

When he reached the door he knocked and called, "This is Beach, let me in," to allay the fears of those on the inside.

Mr. Beach was calm and collected and the story he told on the stand made a good impression.

Mrs. Beach followed her husband on the stand, and with face aflame told the story of the assault.

She said she was crushed to her knees twice by the burly brute, a "gingerbread" negro, who slashed her throat. The story corroborated her husband's testimony.

The prosecutor said, "Did your husband slash your throat?"

With flashing eyes, Mrs. Beach replied, "No, no, no. He never did such a thing."

"You are sure Mr. Beach did not

FRIGHTENED HORSE KNOCKS WOMEN DOWN

THREE OF THEM HAVE CLOSE
CALL TO SERIOUS INJURIES

ANIMAL TEARS LOOSE FROM FASTENINGS AND DASHES UP BAY STREET JUST BEFORE NOON.

At about 11:30 o'clock this morning, as Miss Bessie S. Kine, Miss Sherlock and their house guest, Miss M. R. Alexander, of Boston, Mass., were returning to Miss Kine's winter home, 220 Volusia avenue, after a visit to the Daytona Public Service company's demonstration room in the Arcade block, they were run down by a big grey horse used in the work on the new bridge.

The animal broke loose from the palmetto tree to which it was tied at the foot of Bay street and dashed upon the ladies just as they were turning into that street from Beach street. The horse brushed Miss Sherlock, who was a little in advance of the others and striking them three times to the ground and continued its flight.

An automobile was secured and the ladies taken to Miss Kine's home.
Dr. J. E. Rawlings was summoned and made an examination of their injuries. He found no bones broken, but both had received severe bruises and scratches and were suffering from shock. Miss Kine had a slight scalp wound which appears to have been made by the horse's hoofs.

"Cut your throat?" persisted the prosecutor.

"Absolutely and positively sure,"
snapped the woman.

The case will probably not go to the jury before tomorrow.

CITIZENS TO HEAR REPORT OF DELEGATE

RUTTER TO TELL WHAT HAS BEEN DONE FOR DEEP WATER

MASS MEETING TO BE HELD IN AUDITORIUM OF PUBLIC SCHOOL BUILDING AT 8 O'CLOCK TONIGHT.

Citizens and all others interested in the development of this section should attend the mass meeting which will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the public school auditorium at which time Rev. D. H.
Rutter will make a report of the work accomplished by the delegation recently sent to Washington by the boards of trade of this city and New Smyrna in the interest of the improvement of Mosquito Inlet. Judge Charles E. Barrett and H. I. Hamilton, the secretary of the New Smyrna board of trade, who were delegates from New Smyrna, will also address the meeting. There will be representatives present from all over the territory which will be benefited by the inlet improvement and this city and vicinity should make a good showing at the meeting and residents especially should make an effort to attend in greater numbers than were present at the recent meeting held here in the interest of the project.

Arrested last night by Night Policeman Parker, G. H. Holland of Daytona Beach appeared in the mayor's court this morning to answer to a charge of reckless driving, pleaded not guilty and his case was continued until tomorrow morning.
Holland is alleged by the night policeman to have wrecked a wagon
on South Ridgewood avenue by running into it.

TO FIX THE DE LAND ROAD IMMEDIATELY

COUNTY BOARD DECIDES THE HIGHWAY NEEDS ATTENTION

COMMISSIONERS ALSO DECIDE TO REPAIR FILLS CONNECTING
SPRUCE CREEK AND ROSE BAY
BRIDGES.

That the Daytona-DeLand road is in such condition as to demand immediate attention is the decision reached by the members of the board of county commissioners here Wednesday afternoon, and the work of repairing and improving the highway will be started at once.

The commissioners have decided the road supervisor shall not wait for the county prisoners to complete the work now being done on the John Anderson highway above Ormond before starting the work on the road to the county seat, but that he shall proceed on this work with other help than that of the county prisoners.

The board has ordered a carload of iron culverts to be used on this road, and these should be here so the work of placing them may begin inside of 30 days. In the meantime the road supervisor will begin immediately upon the work of leveling the roadbed with a scraper, cutting off the bumps and filling the ruts and holes.

In addition to this the board reached a decision to at once rebuild the bridges over Smith creek and Bulow creek, the visit of the commissioners to these structures showing the bad condition of the bridges.

The commissioners also decided the Spruce creek and Rose bay fills also need attention and decided to instruct the road supervisor to at once repair these fills.

FOUR HEAVY BATTLES ARE IN PROGRESS

REPORTED THAT 300 BULGARS
ARE KILLED AT MYRIOFITE

GENERALLY BELIEVED TURKEY
CAN NOT HOLD OUT LONG
AGAINST ALLIES AS TREASURY IS EMPTY.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 6 — Heavy battles are continuing today at Gallipoli, Adrianople, Chatalja and Scutari. The Turks claim they are holding their own at all these points.

It is reported that 300 Bulgarians have been killed in the bombardment of the Bulgarian town of Myriofite on the sea of Marhiora by a Turkish sloop. Famine is scourging all Turkey and it is reported the sultan has sold the crown jewels in Paris to raise money to carry on the war.

Turks Falling Back—

SOFIA, Feb. 6—The battle at Gallipoli, on the peninsula, continued today. Reinforcements to the allies are pouring in and the Turks are giving away before the repeated assaults.

The towns of Mereste, Bulair, Charkeui and Kavak have been occupied by the allies and the Turkish defenders either killed, taken prisoners or put to flight. The entire Turkish detachment was cut to pieces near the Avak river.

Turkey About Done For—

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 6 — It is generally believed that Turkey can not carry on the war much longer. The treasury is empty and large loans requested of other countries have been refused. The soldiers are at the point of mutiny.

Turks Looking for Peace—

VIENNA, Feb. 6—A dispatch from Sofia states that secret negotiations have been opened between Skovket Pasha, the Turkish vizier, and Czar Ferdinand. It is stated that Turkish envoys will be sent to Sofia within a week to attempt to negotiate peace.

THE DAILY MARKET REPORT.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6 — Stocks opened irregular, showing fractions either way. Cotton opened steady at five to eight higher on firm cables, good spot demand and southern buying. March was quoted at $12.35 and May at $12.18.

The Chicago Markets—

CHICAGO, Feb. 6 — May wheat, 93½c; May pork, $15.30; lard, $10.27;
ribs, $10.27; hogs five higher, and cattle steady.

The steamer Swan arrived from Jacksonville Wednesday evening and after discharging freight for this vicinity last night, departed early this morning for the south. She carried a large quantity of pipe for the water system being installed at Titusville.

The finest resort hotel in the world is being built at Sunset Mountain Asheville, N. C.

Absolutely Fireproof
 Will open July 1st

Wm. S. KENNEY, manager.

MR. E. W. GROVE, of St. Louis, Mo., is building the finest resort hotel in the world, to be opened July 1st, 1913. It will be absolutely fireproof, and is being built of the great boulders of Sunset Mountain, at whose foot it sits. It is being built by hand in the old-fashioned way. Full of rest and comfort and wholesomeness.

¶ The front lawn is the hundred-acre eighteen-hole golf links of the Asheville Country Club, and with it sixty acres of our own lawn.

¶ The purest water obtainable anywhere, piped seventeen miles, from the slopes of Mount Mitchell, over 6000 feet altitude. Biltmore milk and cream exclusively, supplied from 200 registered Jerseys on the estate of Mr. Geo. W. Vanderbilt. It is doubtful if this famous dairy is equaled in the world.

¶ Four hundred one-piece rugs are being made at Aubusson, France. Seven hundred pieces of the furniture are being made by hand by the Roycrofters. The silver will be hand-hammered.

¶ The plumbing material will be the finest that has ever been placed in any hotel in the world. The soil pipe has been hydraulically tested and then galvanized. The hot water pipe, 18,000 lbs. in weight, will be solid brass. The steam pipes are Byers' genuine lap-welded wrought iron tested hydraulically to 1000 lbs. The bathtubs and fixtures all solid porcelain. No pipes visible anywhere. No radiators to be seen—all placed in recesses under windows. No electric bulbs to be seen.

¶ The "Big Room," or what some call the lobby, is 80 feet by 120, and the rugs in this one room will be worth $5000.00. The two great fireplaces in it will burn twelve-foot logs.

¶ For the golfers we are building lockers and shower bath rooms with a forty-foot swimming pool that will not be excelled by the finest clubs in existence, and the players will be less than 100 yards distant when they are on the links.

¶ Mr. Wm. S. Kenney, of Bretton Woods, N. H., who has shown in his management of The Mount Washington hotel and Hotel Clarendon, that he is the peer of hotel keepers, will manage the Inn.

¶ We own eight hundred acres around the Inn (consumptives not taken).

¶ Especially available for northern guests in the Spring, Fall and Winter, going or returning from farther southern resorts, or for an all Winter resort.

¶ The Inn is located on the side of Sunset Mountain, about a mile from the top, and is not only cool enough in the Summer to make a blanket necessary at night, but is protected and mild enough in the Winter to make life enjoyable without enervation.

When the Worm Turned.

"No power on earth shall make me do it!" he declared, firmly. She approached close to his side. Her eyes blazed into his and her lips quivered.

"You shall do it! However you dread it, it must be done! You hear me?"

"I refuse utterly! Such a thing is unworthy for a man of pride and honor to undertake!" he repeated, drawing back from her as from a whip-lash.

Quickly she was at his side again, gripping his arm with fingers slim, but hard as steel.

She slipped a small knife into his hand—a thin, sharp-pointed piece of steel. "There!" she said. His obstinacy was momentarily driving her to desperation.

Her voice broke with passion, and she cried, in a loud, angry tone: "William Tomkins, if you don't do what I say and go peel those potatoes at once, you'll go to bed without any dinner!"—Puck.

Brief Wills.

Probably the briefest document ever produced as a will was a signed and dated memorandum. "Everything is Love's," written by decedent in a railway train record book kept by him; his widow's name being Lula. The instrument was held to be sufficient as a holographic will, however, in Smith v. Smith, 70 Southeastern Reporter, 491, by the Virginia supreme court of appeals. A note reading:

"Dear Old Nance: I wish to give you my watch, two shawls, and also $5,000. Your old friend, E. A. Gordon"—was sustained as a will in Clark v. Ransom, 50 California, 506; and a dated and signed memorandum, "Mrs. Sophie Loeper is my mistress," was upheld in Succession of Shrenberg, 21 Louisiana Annual, 230.—The Docket.

Made a Good Guest.

A gentleman was watching a military funeral passing down the street. It was a very pretentious affair, and he walked to the edge of the curb to get a better view of the spectacle.

Just then the flag-draped coffin passed, bearing the flower-laden coffin. His curiosity was all the more aroused, so he stepped up to a newsboy, who was watching the procession, and asked:

"Who's dead, sonny?"

The newsie looked at his questioner and then at the passing troops and finally said:

"I don't know, boss; but I guess it must be the feller under all dem flowers!"

Idea Not Attractive.

"Why don't you write a play?" asked an actress of the late David Graham Phillips. "I have too many other ways of breaking my heart!" he replied, with a bitterness which suggested that he had already experimented in the matter.

As Was Shown.

Mrs. Jimmie—"One thing I do is to teach my children etiquette." Mrs. Knox—"Yes; your Jimmy just hit my Waldo very politely with a club."

Long Hours of Miners.

HINTS FOR THE BUSY HOUSEWIFE

Effective Storm Strip For Threshold of a Door.

An effective method of keeping rain from beating in under a door is to equip the bottom edge of the door with a closing strip, as shown in the accompanying sketch, says Popular Mechanics. The strip will also prevent dust from entering.

Two pieces of wood, as long as the door is wide and shaped as shown at A, are hinged together, and the upper strip is fastened with screws to the door. The lower strip swings outward when the door is opened because its upper part is the heavier. When, on the other hand, the door is closed the lower strip strikes a block, as shown at B, which is fastened to the door casing and causes the strip to close tightly over the outside of the threshold strip.

Roast Turkey.

Select a young turkey; pick, since, draw and wash quickly in cold water; wipe dry with towels, then season inside with one-half tablespoonful salt; fill with bread dressing; sew the turkey, rub tablespoonful salt all over it and lay in roasting pan; spread tablespoonful butter over breast, then place pan in medium hot oven to roast. Turn often and baste freely with its own gravy till the bird is a light brown on all sides, then add one cupful boiling water, continue to roast, basting frequently with juice, allowing fifteen minutes to a pound. Place the giblets in a saucepan over the fire, cover with cold water, add one-half teaspoonful salt. When it boils add some onion and cook till done. Shortly before serving lay turkey on a warm dish, remove threads, also fat from gravy; mix one tablespoonful corn starch with cold water, add it to the gravy; stir and cook three minutes; add sufficient giblet broth to make creamy sauce; cook five minutes, then strain; chop giblets very fine, add them to the sauce and serve.

Baked Beans.

Pick one quart of pea beans for any other kind; cover with water and let stand overnight; drain in the morning; cover with water again and parboil just enough to crack the outer shells; then drain, rinse with cold water, put half of the beans into the pot; then add a scant teaspoonful of salt and also sauerkraut, one-half teaspoonful of mustard and three-quarters of a pound of lean minced pork, two tablespoonfuls of molasses and also one of sugar. Now add another half of beans, cover with warm water and bake six hours in a moderate oven. Add more water if required.

Potato Soup.

Three medium sized potatoes boiled until tender in salted water, then mashed. Fry three tablespoonfuls of chopped onion in three tablespoonfuls of butter, add to this two tablespoonfuls of flour and one quart scalded milk. Cook five minutes, then add potato; then add one and one-half teaspoonful salt, one-half teaspoonful each celery salt and paprika, three tablespoonfuls of tomato ketchup, one teaspoonful chopped parsley. Serve immediately.

Homemade Soap.

In making soap, dissolve one can of potash in three pints of cold water. Let stand until cool and then stir to two tablespoonfuls of borax and half cupful of ammonia. Lastly, pour in slowly a five pound pail of grease, warm but not hot. Stir until it begins to thicken and then pour into a shallow tin that has been well greased and covered with paper. Before it gets too hard mold it into cakes as you wish.

Pork Pie.

Cook two pounds of pork loin, cut into small pieces and cover bottom of baking dish with them. Sprinkle chopped onion, sage, salt, pepper and a dredging of flour over. Repeat the layer of meat and seasoning till the dish is filled, about three layers. Add one pork gravy or a generous cupful of stock, with two tablespoonfuls of tomato ketchup. Cover with a pie crust and bake about one hour.

Curried Oysters.

Melt one tablespoonful of butter, add one small teaspoonful of curry powder and one tablespoonful of flour and stir until well browned. Add gradually one and one-half cupful of strained oyster liquor, season with one teaspoonful of onion juice and a dash of pepper and salt to taste, stir and cook until smooth and thick, then add one-half pint of drained oysters and cook until plump.

Sauce For Plum Pudding.

Cream together a cupful of sugar and half a cupful of butter. When light and creamy add the well beaten yolks of four eggs. Stir into this one wineglassful of wine or brandy, a pinch of salt and one large cupful of hot cream or rich milk. Beat this mixture well, place it in a saucepan over the fire, stir it until it cooks sufficiently to thicken like cream. Be sure not to let it boil.

OCEAN BEACH—excellent motoring north for 10 miles and south 15 miles to Mosquito inlet and the Government lighthouse at Ponce Park. The beach is the most magnificent in the world.

BEED, KNOX & BEED ORANGE GROVE—18 miles, via Ormond, is one of the largest groves in Volusia county and is well worth seeing; can be reached by motor over fairly good road; can also be reached by boat.

NUMBER NINE ORANGE GROVE—a large grove, passed on the way to the Beed, Knox & Beed grove, is 12 miles from Daytona.

NEW SMYRNA—16 miles from Daytona, over an excellent hard surface road; this drive is said to be the prettiest in the state. At New Smyrna are the ruins of an ancient fort and other historical spots, left by the colony of Andrew Turnbull.

OLD SPANISH MISSION—2 miles west of New Smyrna, reached by motor over good road. This mission is without authentic history but by many it is contended that this is the church built by Columbus on his second voyage to America. The altar is still extant, but at a later date the building
was used as a sugar mill.

SPANISH SUGAR MILL—2 miles west of Port Orange and about 8 miles from Daytona; the machinery is still in a good state of preservation, although the mill is presumed to have been built and operated by the early Spanish settlers.

GOVERNMENT LIGHTHOUSE—a Ponce Park, 12 miles from Daytona is reached by boat or by motor on the ocean beach.

MAMMOTH TREE—4 miles from Daytona; an abnormally large tree; reached by motor over hard-surfaced road.

DELAND—25 miles from Daytona;
the county seat of Volusia county and seat of John B. Stetson university; a very picturesque city;
reached by motor over hard sur-
faced road.

TOMOKA RIVER—The scenic stream of Florida; reached by excursion boats which leave Daytona daily and run to the navigable head of the stream, 26 miles from the city. Generally a number of alligators may be seen in their native haunts. This is a trip no tourist should miss.

DELEON SPRINGS, 28 miles from Daytona; mammoth spring that throws out thousands of gallons of water a minute; a delightful bathing pool, and picturesque scenery. Spring is situated in an old plantation. Reached by motor over good road; a nice trip for a picnic party.

OAK HILL—hamlet, 10 miles south of New Smyrna; several orange groves in the locality; reached by motor over hard-surfaced road.

ORMOND—six miles from Daytona;
here is located the Ormond hotel and a pretty town; nearby are the ruins of Spanish sugar mills.

TURTLE MOUND—26 miles south of Daytona; reached by boat; a mammoth mound of oyster shells supposed to have been left by a prehistoric race of people. Pottery and other antiquities have been discovered in excavating the shell.

PORT ORANGE—an attractive town 6 miles south of Daytona, can be reached by motor over hard-surfaced road; or the trip one way may be made by the road and crossing the Halifax river on the Port Orange bridge, the return can be made on the ocean beach.

CLARENDON GOLF LINKS—2 miles from Daytona and immediately north of the Hotel Clarendon at Seabreeze; the links are now in good condition. The Hotel Clarendon bears the distinction of being the only fireproof winter tourist hotel in the world.

GENERALLY, you may motor in any direction from Daytona and find places and objects of interest which your driver can explain to you;
there are many by-roads through the sylvan vegetation that a visitor will greatly enjoy.

the cob, she passed the cob to the waiter and said, "Please mam put

Where "Yiddish" Comes From.
The Hebrews who live in Germany speak the German language, using among themselves a peculiar dialect called "Yiddish," that term being itself a corrupt form of the German word Yudisch. Russian Hebrews also use this language, while by a curious chain of historic events Turkish Hebrews speak Spanish. Printed Yiddish shows an interesting combination of languages, the words being essentially German, but printed in Hebrew characters.—Christian Herald.

Stone a Druid Relic.

A large buried stone, concealed for over thirty years near Anwick church, Sleaford, England, in order to be out of the way of the plough, was described, the other day, to the Lincolnshire Naturalists' Union as a Druid relic. The upper part of the stone had been flattened and an irregular shaped basin formed to catch snow or rain used for ritual purposes.

Bishop Not Qualified.

Comments by the bishop of London
(Dr. Ingram) on the falling birth-rate were quoted by counsel in a case in the Clerkenwell county court, when Judge Cluer remarked: "What has the bishop to do with it? He is not married. Example is better than precept."

New Berry in Demand.

The loganberry, a hybrid of the blackberry and raspberry, is said to make the finest of jellies, jams and pies. Introduced a few years ago in the west, its popularity has been steadily increasing, and the demand now outruns the supply. Western Oregon and Washington are the greatest producers of the new berry.

Way Out.

The easiest way to avoid argument over the pronunciation of a word is to use a synonym, as those who say "station" instead of "depot" know. But few would go so far as the carpenter who, in conversation with a friend on a street car, answered a query as to his work by saying: "I'm working in one of those automobile barns."

Keeping Mice From Pianos.

To prevent mice entering pianos
there has been invented a simple sliding plate to be mounted on a pedal so that it covers its opening.

Making All Happy.

"What I deem an appropriate present is a book, and that I must choose for myself," writes a correspondent of the London Chronicle. "To leave the selection to friends would be a catastrophe. Every year, therefore,
on behalf of those generously minded individuals who have kindly thoughts toward me, I buy books for myself,
tell them, and get the money refunded.
And in the measure of monetary value
they remember me, I likewise remember them—in any article of their own choosing. And we are all happy."

Asbestos.

Asbestos is a mineral of a fine fibrous character, the fibers being easily separated, elastic, flexible, and of a whitish-gray color. It is composed chiefly of silica, lime, magnesia, and oxide of iron. The ancients converted it into a kind of cloth, in which they wrapped the bodies of their dead, while preparing them for the funeral pile; the cloth being indestructible by fire, enabled them to preserve the ashes. Asbestos is found more abundantly in Corsica than in any other locality.

Absent-Minded Statesman.

Lord Lawrence, who was once governor general of India, was so absent minded in matters of external display that when the Koh-i-noor diamond, now among the crown jewels, came into his hands for transmission to Queen Victoria after the annexation of the Punjab in 1849, he kept it for six weeks in his waistcoat pocket, having forgotten all about it and only discovered it there by accident.

Strong in Memory.

Rural winter joys increase in an inverse ratio to the square of the distance, or words to that effect. It will be noticed that Whittier did not write "Snow Bound" until after he had become a city-dweller and the memory of frosted nose and ears and tingling hands and feet had become dimmed and vague. A too accurate memory, like acute truthfulness, is a terrible handicap for a real poet, just as it is to an editor.

What Is Time?

What is time? The shadow on the dial, the striking of the clock, the running of the sand—day and night,
summer and winter—months, years, centuries; these are but arbitrary and outward signs, the measure of Time, not Time itself. Time is the Life of the Soul.—Longfellow.

Fault.

Disagreeable people always must be exaggerated, it seems, until they occupy much more than their allotted space in the world.

A Newspaper Enterprise

By LOUISE B. CUMMINGS

When the present czar of Russia was crowned, Elizabeth Moran, a young woman who had entered the profession of journalism, was sent to Russia to report the coronation ceremony. Arriving in Moscow, she discovered that no one was allowed within the church where it was to take place. The journal she represented had obtained for her from the Russian embassy at Washington a few letters to officials in Moscow who might help her. One of these was Dmitri Srensky, a young man of very prepossessing appearance, who the moment he saw Miss Moran proceeded to fall in love with her.

Srensky had authority to grant passes into the church, but only to certain persons connected with the foreign legations. He told the young woman that it was possible for him to secure her an admission, but, considering the care taken to keep out any one who should be present for the purpose of assassination, if he should admit her and it were discovered the act would be punishable either with death or life imprisonment.

Elizabeth hesitated to accept such a risk for the young man. But there is in woman an inherent desire to put the devotion of man to the test, so she told him she would accept his offer. Before she quite realized what she was doing she had placed him in jeopardy. The attempt was unsuccessful, and both were arrested.

Fortunately the American minister was present and learned that one of his countrywomen had endeavored to effect an entrance to the ceremony by corrupting an official and bestirred himself in the matter. It required months for him to convince the czar that Miss Moran was a newspaper correspondent and her only object was to send a report of the coronation ceremony to an American journal. Then she was released and ordered to leave Russia at once.

Before her departure she learned that the man whose love for her had induced him to take such a terrible risk had been sent to the mines of Kara in Siberia. There are few women who would not be won by such a sacrifice. Miss Moran's whole heart went out to her unfortunate lover, whose fate was worse than death, and she resolved to free him.

But no such attempt could be successful without adequate preparation. She returned to America, where news of her arrest had preceded her. Indeed, it was largely through the efforts of the multimillionaire newspaper proprietor that her liberty had been obtained. She told him of her resolve to free Srensky and claimed his influence and financial support in her effort. After vainly trying to induce her to relinquish her intention he agreed to help her. At her suggestion he secured through the Russian ambassador at Washington permission for one of his staff to investigate the Kara mines and write an account for the journal. When this was finally accomplished, unlimited means were placed at her disposal, and, armed with the written permission that had been issued to Victor Kenworthy, she returned to Europe.

One morning a rather delicately organized person presented the Kenworthy order to the governor of Kara and was admitted to the inspection of the prisons. Not long after that Dmitri Srensky was transferred to the "free command" on the ground that he was afflicted with an incurable disease. The free command consists of persons who for some especial reason are permitted to live in houses, or, rather, huts, by themselves. Srensky was astonished at this being transferred and could not divine the cause of such a favor.

Kenworthy, or, rather, Miss Moran, spent several weeks in making her inspection and writing her report, which she submitted to the governor. He was much pleased that it gave a very favorable account of the condition and kindly treatment of the prisoners.

One day Kenworthy appeared in his carriage at the outer guard station of Kara and told the commander that he desired to pass out without a permit. The commander was about to express a curt refusal when Kenworthy handed him an envelope. The officer opened it, but before taking out the contents saw that it was a money order of some kind. Without removing it he saw enough of it to assure him that it was a certified check on a bank in New York for $10,000. Closing the envelope, he told Kenworthy that he might drive on. Before doing so Kenworthy told him that the next evening he would desire to pass again and with some papers, reports on the condition of the prisoners, which he did not wish examined. He would have with him another envelope.

Kenworthy was permitted to visit the prisoners of the free command. He called on Srensky and made him known. Srensky was thunderstruck. In a brief interview it was agreed that the latter was to come the next evening to a room leading to the main cell, where he would find a carriage.

The last act was Kenworthy standing in his carriage at the gate, handing the officer stationed there another $10,000 check and driving on. Srensky was concealed under robes.

A chartered vessel was at anchor in Kara sea, which took aboard the fugitives and landed them in Sweden, where they were married and continued their journey to New York.

THEY WERE VERY RICH.

What Else They Were Was Quaintly Told by Mary Lyon.

When in 1887 Mary Lyon founded Holyoke college she collected the money required for its first building in sums that ranged from 6 cents to $1,000. She got 1,800 persons to subscribe. Her feat gave the new enterprise an unusually wide foundation in the public interest, but she did not accomplish it without much hard work or without gaining wide experience of human nature.

One evening Miss Lyon arrived in the village of Ashfield, Mass., at a home where she was always welcomed gladly. She was full of hope and enthusiasm. Would the squire take her at once to W., where, she had learned, there was a family of wealth that might give liberally toward the new building?

"Supper and a good night's rest, Miss Lyon," was the reply, "and then my horses shall take you there."

The next morning as they were starting the squire's wife laid a gentle hand on Miss Lyon's shoulder, with the warning: "Do not expect too much, my dear Miss Lyon. We know the people. I fear you will not be successful."

With a beaming face Miss Lyon replied: "Oh, I am told they are very rich. I am sure they will help liberally."

When she entered the house on her return Miss Lyon went quickly to her friend, and, grasping her arm, while conflicting emotions played over her face, she said:

"Yes, it is all true, just as I was told. They live in a costly house. It is full of costly things, they wear costly clothes"—then, drawing nearer and almost closing her eyes, she whispered with unforgettable emphasis, "but, oh, they're little bits of folks!"—Youth's Companion.

FREEZING TO DEATH.

Sensations That Come With Exposure to Extreme Cold.

In the course of a series of experiments with extreme cold carried on at Berlin, Raoul Pictet, an investigator, inserted his bare arm beyond the elbow in a chamber refrigerated to a temperature of 157 degrees below zero F. and kept it there for several minutes. He suffered no permanent damage, but experienced a number of peculiar and painful sensations. The chief of these and the most trying was a feeling of pain in the bones of the hand and arm.

The pain increased steadily. It was located chiefly in the interior parts of the arm and was far less severe in the portions near or at the surface. The skin was purple when the member was withdrawn. In about ten minutes a violent reaction set in with violent burning sensation of the skin wherever it had been exposed.

Investigations carried on with dogs indicated that the process of freezing to death is not necessarily an unpleasant one. Placed in a temperature of -125 to -150 the animals displayed quickened breathing and heart beats, with a decided rise above normal in the blood temperature. These signs pointed to a sudden and violent automatic effort of the heart to preserve the bodily temperature. In spite of energetic heart action the temperature of the blood fell gradually to 71 degrees. At this point the heart action ceased very suddenly.

The sensations of bodily warmth and languor mentioned in descriptions of death by violent cold can easily be understood in view of the above experiments.—New York Sun.

An Ancient English Workhouse.

In the records of St. Thomas' hospital, London, is an entry of the year 1570 to the effect that "in consideration of the hot type of the year" the poor be allowed every one a day three pence of beer for two months, a quart at dinner and a pint at supper, and at the end of two months return to "there usual ordinary allowance, which is one quart." The food at this ancient workhouse was to be dealt with as liberally as the drink. The almoner and steward were to "bye no byle but of the best, without bones and in special without the marmyton, and none other to be bought."

A man had sixty ducks for sale and divided them into two lots of thirty each. One lot was to be disposed of at three for $1 and the other at two for $1. In his absence his clerk sold the sixty ducks at five for $2, realizing the sum of $24. If sold according to instructions one purchaser would have got thirty ducks for $15 and the other thirty for $10, making $25 for the lot. What became of the missing dollar?

DeLAND, Fla., Feb. 6 — At the regular meeting of the Volusia county school board this week deeds from Berlin H. Wright to lot 13, block 16, DeLeon Springs, which is a donation by Mr. Wright to the Volusia county school board, were received, and a card of thanks was tendered Mr. Wright by the school board. This lot is adjoining the school property in DeLeon, and is of much value to the school there.

The resignation of E. A. Knapp, trustee of the Oak Hill district, was received, and the superintendent was ordered to circulate a petition for the recommendation for some one to fill the vacancy. The superintendent was also authorized to cause petition to be circulated among the people of Kingston for the recommendation of a trustee to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Geo. W. Hull, which was received some time since.

An application from Barberville for an additional month of school from the general county funds was received and rejected. The superintendent was authorized to notify the trustees that they may continue the school for one or two months, but the expense must be paid from the sub district funds.

A communication from the citizens of Indian Springs, stating that a school house would be completed soon, and requesting the board to furnish them with a teacher was received and the request granted.

An application from the trustees of district No. 6, for sufficient financial assistance to continue school there for two additional months, and allow the district funds to apply on the indebtedness on the school building, and general expense, was received, and the request granted, provided the trustees will agree to file annually, a report of receipts and expenditures of the sub school district funds.

The following resolution was adopted:

It having come to the notice of the school board that one of the teachers in one of the public schools of Volusia county, has used excessive punishment, in punishing one of his pupils, be it resolved that it is the sense of the board that such punishment and conduct is to be deplored; therefore, we, as a board, condemn the action, and strongly censure the teacher for his lack of judgment, in allowing his temper to get the better of him. And to all concerned: The board wishes to go on record in saying that if such treatment of a student again occurs in any school of this county, the board will at once take proper action to discharge the teacher inflicting such brutal punishment. Be it also resolved, that this resolution be embodied in the minutes of this meeting and spread upon the minute book. Passed by a unanimous vote of the board.

Upon recommendation of State Superintendent Sheats, Superintendent Sheppard was authorized to attend the department of superintendents of the National Educational association, to be held in Philadelphia February 24 to 28.

The following financial report was submitted and approved.

FOR THE CHILDREN

Blackie's Plight.

The day was fine, and Mrs. Pig Came grunting round the stack, And with her came her babies ten, Nine white ones and a black.

"Now, children, keep your noses down And follow me about: Then if some titbits lie around You're sure to sniff them out."

The white ones promised to be good And do as they were bid, But Blackie shook his curly tail And ran away and hid.

"Whatever is the good," said he, "Of walking in a row? It's just as bad as that old sty. I'll have some fun, I know."

And so he trotted round the yard, His nose up in the air, To see the many wondrous things That were assembled there.

But soon there was a dreadful splash And then a dismal scream, For Blackie's head was held so high He never saw the stream.

His mother, who was not far off, Came running at the sound, And when she saw poor Blackie's plight She thought he would be drowned.

Oh, how she squealed until at last She brought the farmer's men, Who with a lengthy wooden rake Flashed Blackie out again.

But Blackie was a wiser pig, And from that very day He always did as he was bid Nor wandered far away.

—Brooklyn Eagle.

Your Fingers.

Doubtless you feel sure you know where your fingers are and certain that they will mind you when you want them to move. But if you try this experiment you will get all mixed up and won't know which finger is which.

First cross your arms in your lap with the palms of your hands facing each other, fingers spread. Then clasp fingers together, bring them toward you and turn them around so that you could put your little finger in your mouth. (That's not a part of the experiment. It is merely to explain how you have to hold your hands.)

Now look at your fingers and decide which one you want to move, or else get some one else to choose one, and you will probably find when you try to move it that you are moving a different finger from the one you wanted to move. The person who chooses must not touch the finger, but only point to it, or you will be able to feel which one you ought to move.

After you have tried the trick yourself go and try it on some one else.

Riddle and Answer.

Being a funny man, he was at it again.

"I say," he remarked to those assembled, "I bet you can't answer this riddle."

"Well, what is it?" asked a chorus of voices.

"Can you name an animal that has eyes and cannot see, legs and cannot walk, but can jump as high as the Eiffel tower?"

Everybody raked his brains, and there was a deep silence for a moment.

"I don't know," remarked some one.

"I give it up."

The rest of the party also signified their inability to solve the riddle.

"The answer," said the funny man, "is a 'wooden horse.' It has eyes and cannot see and legs and cannot walk."

"Yes, but how does it jump as high as the Eiffel tower?" came the triumphant shout.

"The Eiffel tower," said the funny man as he made preparations for hurried departure, "can't jump at all!"

The Stork.

As a rule storks live in marshes and feed on reptiles, frogs and their spawn as well as on fishes and young birds. They are in all the old countries, where they live a privileged race on account of their usefulness and of the havoc they make among the noxious animals. Their migration takes place in great flocks. They are easily tamed.

Of these birds the common or white stork of Europe is probably the best known. This species is from long habit very tame, approaching the dwellings of man without fear.

In the continental towns tame storks, which have been taken from the nest when young, may be often seen about the markets, where they are recognized as scavengers, cleaning the place of fish entrails and other offal to their own and the citizens' satisfaction.

Early American Weavers.

In 1640 the court of Massachusetts passed two orders directing the growth of flax, ascertaining what colonists were skillful in breaking, spinning and weaving. Boys and girls were taught to spin and weave and offered a bounty for linen grown, spun and woven in the colony. Connecticut passed similar measures. The industry received a fresh impetus through the immigration of about 100 Irish families from Londonderry. They settled in New Hampshire, on the Merrimack, in about 1719 and spun and wove with far more skill than prevailed among those English settlers who had already become Americans.

A Neat Trick.

Place three small biscuits on the table in a row and cover each of them with a borrowed hat.

Raise each hat in turn, gravely eat the biscuit and with appropriate patter and a suggestion of sleight of hand replace the hat.

Now undertake that the three biscuits shall be under whichever hat the audience may select. This promise is easily fulfilled by placing the chosen hat upon your head.

Testing Coins.

"There goes another man suffering from degeneration of public manners," said the clerk in an aggrieved tone. "I gave him five pieces of silver in making change, and he tested every one of them to see if it was counterfeit right before my eyes. It is only lately that people who buy have got rude enough to do that. Clerks always did it with coin that customers gave them, but that was a prerogative of the trade. For the customer to assume the same privilege is a usurpation of ancient rights. The worst of it is most people nowadays are pretty good judges of bad money, and every little while a coin is refused because it is counterfeit. The only way tradesmen can teach customers the respect due them is to turn their own backs when testing money. That has always been the custom in England. No tradesman over there would dare flip a coin under a customer's nose, and as a consequence no customer has ever taken that liberty with him."

Bliss.

Willie Wayback—"My pa says in New York they have buildings 40 stories high." Tommy Rural—"Ain't that fine! A kid could spend 'most all his life sliding down the banisters, couldn't he?"

Do Unto Others.

He who would pass the declining years of his life with honor and comfort should, when young, consider that he may one day become old and remember, when he is old, that he has once been young.—Addison.

Fair Offer.

It was a political meeting in the east end, and the M. P., an exceptionally popular man, was addressing his constituents. The politician in question rejoiced in a luxurious crop of hair. The audience was sympathetic for the most part; but there was one man in the front row of the audience who made numerous interruptions. He was a coal-heaver, apparently, and had but recently been heaving coals.

"Get your hair cut!" he shouted during a most pathetic passage in the candidate's speech. The well-known catch phrase seemed particularly applicable, so a good many of the audience laughed.

But the M. P. was equal to the occasion.

"I will make a bargain with that gentleman," he said. "I will get my hair cut if he will get his face washed."

There were no more interruptions. —London Tit-Bits.

London Fog Costly.

It is said the London taxpayer is put to an extra expense of $600,000 annually by reason of the prevalence of fog. One big company alone furnishes gas to the value of $15,000 over and above the normal figure on a single day of fog. The suspension of traffic is another serious item.

Couldn't Take Prescription. Physician—"You should seek a higher altitude." Patient—"It always gets me dizzy to travel by airship."

"LONG TIME" IS DEFINED

Remark of Governor of North Carolina to Governor of South Carolina Brought into Court.

The oft-quoted remark of the Governor of North Carolina to the Governor of South Carolina has at last been brought into court, carefully construed, and found not to be so long as some other times. It is probable that it was the exceeding droughtiness of the interval which made it seem long. In a prosecution for the illegal sale of whisky in Alabama, a witness testified that he had bought a pint of liquor of the accused "a short time" before the grand jury returned the indictment against him. It was objected that this evidence did not show that the prosecution had been begun within 12 months after the sale of the whisky, the time limited by statute for beginning a prosecution. In discussing this objection, the Supreme court, in Wilson versus State, 56 Southern Reporter, 114, after holding that "a short time" might be taken in the connection in which it was used to refer to a period less than 12 months, said, by way of illustration: "The expression 'a long time' would refer to a very different period of duration and have a widely different meaning in measuring time when used by an archaeologist having reference to the period of existence of the Egyptian pyramids, than when used by Carolina Governors with reference to the time between drinks." The court may be right, but probably the Governor of North Carolina measured time as recommended by the poet who said: "We live * * * in feelings, not in figures on the dial."—Colliers.

Glaciers Caused by Milky Way.

Another suggested cause of glacial periods is that they have been due to the shifting of the milky way, such as is known to have occurred.

Assuming that much of the earth's heat comes from the stars, Dr. Rudolf Spitaler finds that the change of position in relation to the milky way might have given a different distribution of temperature from that existing at the present time. The stars are not only crowded in the region of the milky way but many of them are of the hottest type.

"Jes' Full o' Take."

The cast off hats and dresses of the women of the family have frequently been offered to the maid in a north side family. Last week, when asked whether she would take a pair of over-shoes that were believed to be too heavy for wet weather at this time of the year she replied: "O, yes'm, yes'm, I've jes' full o' take; I've raised up never to refuse anything."—Indianapolis News.

Practical Ventilating Hint.

The house should be ventilated in winter as well as in summer if the family is to be kept in good health. Bedrooms, especially, should be provided with a free circulation of fresh air. One way to get fresh air in a bedroom without having a draft is to tack strips of cheesecloth across the top and the bottom of the window so that when it is opened in both places the fresh air will enter the room and yet, should there be a strong wind, its force will be broken by the cloth.

How to Remove Mildew.

To remove mildew from linen take some yellow soap and rub it well into the linen, then scrape some chalk very fine and rub that in also. Lay the linen on the grass and as it dries wet it again and again until the mildew disappears. Another way is to mix soft soap and powdered starch with half the quantity of salt and the juice of a lemon. Apply the mixture with a brush and lay the linen out on the grass for a few frosty nights until the stain disappears.

Nature Covers Bleak Spots.

The planting of the barren mounds of disused coalpits in the "Black Country" between Birmingham and Wolverhampton, England, is beginning to show successful results. The growth this year of the trees planted on the coal mounds has been very rapid, with the result that many public bodies are taking an interest in the experiments.

Victorian Jest.

The diversions of the court included an anticipation of the spelling bee. When a lady of the court spelled "thermometer" with an "a" Melbourne judiciously observed: "It is a very good way to spell it, but not the way." —London Athenaeum.

Force of Habit.

"Why did she want to set her husband's will aside?" "Merely because it was her husband's, and she had got in the habit of setting his will aside." —Houston Post.

STRONG PLAY AT THE NEW DAYTONA THEATER TONIGHT.

"The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," which comes to the New Daytona theater tonight shows the brilliant and popular dramatist, Eugene Walter, at his best. He has faithfully mirrored the delightful scenes of the book, and the scenic frame and stage setting arranged are gorgeous indeed.

June's great love for Jack Hale, the jealousy of her cousin Dave; the rough yet sincere affection of her father Judd Tolliver; the humorous simplicity of Uncle Billy, and Ole Hun; the quiet strength of Hale; the feudal scenes the guiding motif of the opposed side, and the picture of the mountaineer's household, are strongly impressive by the mobility and breadth of their portrayal.

Neither pains nor artistic ability have been spared to give Mr. Walter's play a truly fine presentation, and it enjoyed long runs in Boston and Philadelphia to capacity business. You see what you imagined in the book, the story of romantic love developed in the heart of a primitive girl in the fastness of high encircling purple mountains, to the touch of lofty skies, with the lone pine bowing in homage to the royal wind, and the mountain brook's silver gleam—June's mirror.

The strong New York company presents the big dramatic success in a mammoth production.

Children Feel Inquisitive.

In the little world in which children have their existence, whatever brings them up, there is nothing so finely perceived and so finely felt as injustice.—Charles Dickens.
